BERKSHIRE'S HIDDEN GEMS

BERKSHIRE BOTANICAL GARDEN * CHESTERWOOD
BARRINGTON BREWERY

THURSDAY, MAY 24, 2018

Spend the day in the Berkshires of Massachusetts. The day will allow you to explore some of the "forgotten" gems of the area.

Called a "glistening community gem," the Berkshire Botanical Garden encompasses 15 acres of cultivated land. The public display gardens are both functional and ornamental, and are among the oldest in the US.

Enjoy lunch on your own at Barrington Brewery. Since 1995 Barrington Brewery has been serving their own Barn Brewed Beer and food made from scratch. They pride themselves on using locally sourced food whenever possible.

Spend some time touring Chesterwood, which is the country home, studio and gardens of Daniel Chester French who is the foremost sculptor of public monuments. Some of his works include: Minute Man, and Abraham Lincoln for the Lincoln Memorial. In his studio, you'll see plaster sketches of some of French's pieces.
